Verification of CMU's status can be found on the HLC website. Additional details on CMU's HLC and program-specific state and national agency accreditation is provided in the Overview of Colorado Mesa University.

Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) Disclosure Information

In compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, information about Colorado Mesa University is available on the University's website. Information disclosed includes program information, physical plant facilities, faculty information, financial aid and textbook information, as well as student-right-to-know information.

State Authorization Compliance for Distance Education (SARA)

To offer online courses and other distance education activities—such as internships, clinical placements, or student teaching—outside of Colorado, Colorado Mesa University must comply with relevant state and federal regulations. CMU and CMU Tech participate in the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement \(SARA\), a national initiative managed by the National Council of State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements \(NC-SARA\), which promotes student access to quality distance education.

Student Complaint Resolution

CMU is committed to resolving student concerns fairly and promptly. Students should first follow CMU's Student Complaint Policy. If the issue remains unresolved, they may file a complaint with Colorado's SARA Portal Entity at the Colorado Department of Higher Education.

Students located outside Colorado can also contact the SARA Portal Entity in the state where they are enrolled. For more details, view the complaint contact for each state and the SARA complaint policy and process.
