Colorado Department of Higher Education Statewide Guaranteed Transfer Courses

Colorado Mesa University offers a wide variety of Essential Learning courses that are approved for Colorado's Guaranteed Transfer Pathways (gtPathways) General Education Curriculum, which ensures their acceptance for transfer to other Colorado public institutions of higher education. Additionally, CMU accepts the transfer of gtPathways approved courses from other Colorado public institutions of higher education. Guaranteed transfer courses are universally transferable across these institutions and are applicable to Essential Learning/General Education requirements within all associate and baccalaureate degree programs.

GT Codes

To determine if a CMU course is eligible for gtPathways transfer, check for a GT code in the course description. Courses approved through Colorado's gtPathways General Education Curriculum are grouped into five content areas, four of which have sub groupings:
