

STAMPEDE WELCOME WEEK

---

Welcome Week is an opening week program for all students hosted by our Programming Activities Council (PAC). Activities begin the first day of school and carry on throughout the whole week during both the fall and spring semesters.

New students to Colorado Mesa University are strongly encouraged to participate in the programs offered in order to meet fellow classmates and learn about the University's programs and facilities. Visit the Welcome Week website for schedules and information.